YOU CAN'T FOOL THE PEOPLE ALL THE TIME

It sure makes my soul rejoice to see the good people open their eyes. You all know how I was "robbed" here in Alliance one year ago in the restaurant business. I congratulate you that you are showing a few of your town bosses that they cannot persuade strangers to your town, then turn around and put them out of business. The Alliance Hotel can't be beat. Nohe's restaurant has also changed hands. Boost for them. The Bon-Ton cafe will also treat you right. Now open your eyes as did Eve and put the town dry.

"VAG" CASE IS APPEALED

Frank Reed Released on Bond—Appeals Case to the District Court

After his fine of $25 and costs had been suspended and he had been given three chances to go to work, Frank Reed, alias Shanklin, was arrested in Alliance Tuesday night. Wednesday morning he entered the employ of the city for a period of time sufficient to satisfy the fine and court costs, and one day's work was enough. That night he appealed the case to the district court and furnished bond in the sum of $100 signed by Everett Cook. Reed was arrested and fined on a charge of vagrancy.

TO GET RID OF CURS

City Plans to Rid Citizens of the Dog Nuisance so Noticeable the Past Few Months

Dogs, curs, the full-blooded kind, the homeless kind and every old kind of dogs will be the next victims of the Alliance program of clean-up. The dog nuisance in Alliance has reached the point that it is disgusting and intolerable. Dozens of them have been permitted to run loose in the business streets where they loaf twenty-four hours a day. Some days there is a dog fight every fifteen minutes and every day parties driving automobiles and teams or riding horseback are subjected to the nuisance of one to half a dozen dogs following and barking. The city officials say this must stop.

Many of these animals are outcasts and on others no dog tax has ever been paid. These will be taken in charge by the police and properly disposed of. The payment of dog tax and the complying with the ordinances will protect the owners who have dogs that they value, but this must be attended to at once. Taxes paid now will only pay up till May 1, when the tax for the coming fiscal year will be due.

NEW FURNITURE FOR THE COUNCIL'S NEW QUARTERS

New furniture has been purchased from the Omaha Printing Company for the new quarters about completed in the city hall for the council chamber. Bids were received ranging from $360 to $1140, and the contract was let to the lowest bidder.

In the new equipment are included desks and chairs for the mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, city attorney and reporter, and also one each for the eight members of the council.

How to Prevent Croup

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable everywhere.

SHEEP NEED LITTLE CAPITAL

No Other Way of Investing Money on Farm That Comes Back So Profitably or So Soon.

Very little capital—that is, money—invested in sheep is called for, and there is no other way of investing it on any farm that comes back so profitably or so soon. One year's use only is called for before the money is coming back into the owner's hands, with its double interest.

The fleece will pay one interest on the cost and the lamb another, and if the sheep have been well selected there will be another interest paid back in their growth. The benefit to the land will easily pay all the costs of a flock for the year's feeding, and, in general, this service to the owner of a flock from the year's feeding, and a field has been known to add so much to the next season's crop as to repay the whole amount of money cost of the sheep, but it is a mistake to start with too many.

Three sheep to the acre are sufficient for the land that can be appropriated for the feeding of them. Thus, if one has ten acres of land that can be used for a flock each year, 30 sheep only should be procured. It is an easy matter to add to the number if desired. But it is to be considered that the flock will grow very fast, doubling almost, under favorable conditions, every year, if well cared for, and the ewes are not more than three or four years old. It is a great mistake to make a start with a flock of old ewes, and is money and care wasted.

BEST TREATMENT FOR COLIC

Improper Feeding Is Most Common Cause of Trouble—Physic of Salts or Oil Is Favored.

(By L. L. LEWIS, Oklahoma Experiment Station.)

Colic in horses and cattle is from various causes, but is more particularly due to sudden changes in feed or to eating more feed than can be easily digested by the animal at that time. The amount of feed that an animal may digest at one time under certain conditions may be entirely too much under other conditions. Since colic may be caused by so many different things, no one remedy will prove effective in all cases.

As a general rule, most of the colics that are seen in farm stock are due to improper feeding. In those cases the best general treatment that might be used would be to give as early as possible a physic of salts or oil. To relieve the pain seen particularly in spasmodic colic, the safest general treatment that can be used is to give from one to one and one-half ounce of chloral hydrate, dissolved in a pint of water, to which has been added one teaspoonful of ground ginger.

Do not give laudanum in such cases, as it only tends to produce constipation, and on this account is one of the poorest remedies that you can use.

TREATMENT FOR HOG WORMS

Best Preventive Is to Give Animals Clean Troughs—Keep Away From Stagnant Water Pools.

To keep hogs free from worms they should at all times have a drink from clean troughs, feed from a clean floor and keep away from yards, wallows, manure piles, pastures and stagnant waters.

For worms, give eight grains of sal-tonine and five grains of calomel for every 100 pounds of body weight.

Give the medicines in a little slop after starving the pigs for 18 hours. Repeat in two weeks if thought necessary.

Measuring Productivity.

The productivity of live stock is measured by the value of the returns to the farmer.

From $300 to $5,000 in Six Years

Thousands of wealthy men today made their money, and thousands more got their start, by purchasing town property in the right location, at low prices and holding them for the development that brings the increase in price.
